DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-4, 7, 10 and 12 are under consideration in this application.

Claims 5, 6, 8, 9 and 11 are held withdrawn from consideration as being drawn to nonelected subject matter. 37 CFR 1.142(b). Claims 5, 6 and 9 are drawn to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 11 is dependent on claim 5 which is drawn to non-statutory subject matter.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in the reply filed on December 29, 2006 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the examiner has failed to establish any reasons why there is a lack of unity of invention. This is not found persuasive because for the reasons clearly set forth in the previous Office action. Further, applicants have failed to advance any cogent reasons as to why the inventions have unity of invention.

Claim 8 is not drawn to a process of preparing the compounds of claim 1 as incorrectly alleged by applicants. Claim 8 does not prepare the instant compounds.

It is too burdensome for the examiner to search all of the previously noted searches in their respective, completely divergent, areas for the non-elected subject matter, as well, in the limited time provided to search one invention.

The requirement is still deemed sound and proper and is therefore maintained.

This application has been examined to the extent readable on the elected compounds, i.e., A is benzene, exclusively.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3 and 4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 1 is objected to as containing nonelected subject matter. The objection may be overcome by limiting the claim to the subject matter indicated as being examinable, supra. A claim so limited would appear allowable.

Claims 2, 7, 10 and 12 presented in independent form or made dependent on an allowable claim, would appear allowable, otherwise it is objected to as being dependent on a non allowed claim.
